

Fact Sheet

Making video collaboration easy.

Zoom Video Conferencing.

Zoom Video Conferencing from Verizon is a complete video and audio conferencing experience that delivers collaboration, chat, and sharing across mobile devices, desktops, phones and room systems.

Collaborate with colleagues, give presentations, perform product demonstrations, or deliver companywide messages. Zoom Video Conferencing helps bring teams together to get more done.

Easy to use

with a consistent experience platforms and robust interoperability across devices.

Cost effective solution that helps you save on travel costs and help with usage charges for customers on Verizon VoIP calls.

Robust management tools with simple management tools and reporting allowing for easy deployment and utilization trends.

Verizon success teams

to support end-user on-boarding and adoption.

Verizon helps with success bringing 30+ years' experience of delivering audio-conferencing solutions for global collaboration services.

Meetings

Easily meet over Video Web Conferencing. Host HD Video meetings with up to 500 participants and live view of up to 25. Easily start, join and collaborate across virtually any device and location.

Audio Conferencing

Connect your meetings over Verizon's Audio Infrastructure. Select from a list of Call-In Toll or Toll Free Number for over 50 countries or just select call-me and have the meeting call you.

Conference Room Connectors

Integrate seamlessly with Legacy Video Systems to the Cloud. Extend your video conferencing experience across all your room systems with one tap meeting functionality by connecting your existing SIP or H.323 endpoints.

Webinar

Host your session over Video to large groups. Turn a webinar in to complete event. Host up to 100 panelists with video, voice, and screen sharing for up to 50,000 attendees.

Rooms

Turn your conference room into a complete collaboration experience. No need for cables, just present directly from your laptop or mobile device. Start a meeting directly from the conference room or integrate with your company's calendaring system.

Chat

Communicate with your team using Cross Platform Messaging. Continue the collaboration beyond the meeting. Send text, image, and audio files across desktop, laptop, tablet, and mobile. Instantly start a meeting directly from chat.

Integrate with your existing business applications.

Share key content seamlessly with your team or easily schedule and join meetings from existing email or calendar application.

Learn More.

To find out more about Zoom Video Conferencing from Verizon, contact your account representative today.

