In the event that Supplier cannot accomplish (i) or (ii) above on commercially reasonable terms not later than thirty (30) days after Supplier becomes aware of the Action, the issuance of such injunction or prohibition, or receipt of Buyer's notice that an Action is likely to occur, as applicable, then Supplier shall promptly upon Buyer's written request, refund to Buyer all amounts paid in connection with the applicable Deliverable or the cost of repair or replacement of the affected third party equipment as is reasonably required in exchange of the return of the same, subject to Applicable Law and any order or directions made by any court of competent jurisdiction in the Action.

Buyer Indemnatee shall also have the right to participate in the investigation, defense and settlement negotiations of any such Action with separate counsel chosen and paid for by Buyer Indemnatee. Moreover, at any time, Buyer Indemnatee may at its own cost and expense (which cost and expense shall not be subject to indemnification under this Clause 16) settle any such Actions against it so long as such settlement is expressly without prejudice to the interest or position of Supplier.
- 16.4 Supplier and Supplier's insurers shall ensure that all investigations into the incident from which the Action arises and any subsequent settlement discussions are conducted expeditiously and without unnecessary delay.
- 16.5 Notwithstanding Clause 16.3, Buyer Indemnatee shall be entitled to conduct, or take over from Supplier and/or its insurers the conduct of, all negotiations for settlement of the Action being taken against Buyer Indemnatee arising out of the matters referred to in Clause 16.1. “Moral Rights” has the meaning given in article 6bis of the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works.

2. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS:

- 2.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Buyer shall be the sole owner of all right, title and interest to the Work Product including all Intellectual Property therein but excluding the Excluded IP Rights. To the extent the Work Product consists of works protectable by copyright, the Parties agree that the Work Product shall be deemed work-made-for-hire (as defined in the US Copyright Act of 1976), with all copyrights vesting immediately in Buyer. With respect to all forms of Intellectual Property and except for the Excluded IP Rights, Supplier on behalf of itself and all Supplier Personnel hereby assigns to Buyer the ownership of all Intellectual Property in the Work Product, and Supplier agrees, and will cause all Supplier Personnel, to execute all documents, perform all acts and provide any other assistance or information, all as necessary or appropriate to Buyer’s perfection of its sole ownership of such Intellectual Property and Work Product. Supplier shall immediately identify to Buyer any Intellectual Property as to which it intends to seek such consent, and Buyer may withhold such consent in its sole discretion. Supplier hereby grants (and if necessary shall cause all Supplier Personnel and any other relevant legal entity or other person to grant) to Buyer a non-exclusive, non-terminable, non-cancellable, fully-paid up, royalty free, assignable, transferable, sub licensable, irrevocable, worldwide, perpetual license to copy, distribute, perform publicly, display publicly, prepare derivative works of, make, have made, use, have used, sell, have sold and modify or have modified any and all Pre-Existing IP incorporated into the Work Product (but only to the extent so incorporated and excluding all Excluded IP Rights), all as reasonably necessary or appropriate to Buyer’s enjoyment and commercial exploitation of its rights of ownership of the Work Product pursuant to this Intellectual Property Rights provision. 5. Shipping and Delivery
 - 5.1 Supplier must ensure that all in-stock Products are delivered to the local destination specified in the PO by the delivery date specified in the PO, ("Delivery Date"). If Supplier fails to meet the Delivery Date, Buyer may require an expedited delivery, with any additional costs to be borne solely by Supplier, or Buyer may cancel all or part of the Deliverables without penalty or liability or any further obligation to Supplier with respect to such Deliverables.
 - 5.2 Supplier shall provide Buyer written notice within one (1) Business Day upon receipt of notice from the OEM when the OEM provides notice of (a) discontinuation of a particular Product or Service; (b) termination of Supplier's right to distribute or resell a particular Product or Service; or (c) any price increases or decreases for OEM Products and OEM Services sold by Supplier to Buyer.
 - 5.3 Supplier shall provide Buyer ninety (90) days advance written notice if Supplier unilaterally terminates distribution of (a) a particular OEM Product category; (b) an entire OEM Product group; or (c) an entire OEM Product line.

III. Where Supplier is a value-added provider that provides services in relation to OEM Deliverables, Supplier shall agree to the following:

1. Global Trade Compliance. Supplier shall agree to submit the Deliverables to the Bureau of Industry and Security, US Department of Commerce or foreign equivalent, to undergo product classification, encryption review, mass market review, as necessary or undergo any other procedures required under applicable export-import laws and regulations to facilitate importation, exportation or re-exportation of the Deliverables.

2. Acceptance.
 - 2.1 All Deliverables shall be subject to the acceptance process set out herein. Buyer will accept a Deliverable if, in Buyer's reasonable opinion, the Deliverable conforms with the relevant PO and any applicable Specifications or SOWs ("Acceptance"). Acceptance or failure to accept ("Non-Conformance") shall not affect Buyer's rights or Distributor's obligation to perform under Section 12 (Warranties) of this Agreement or any other rights or remedies available to Buyer. Buyer's right to inspect and test does not relieve Supplier from its testing, inspection and quality control obligations, if applicable.
 - 2.2 Acceptance Process
 - 2.2.1 Unless a longer period is mutually agreed on a case-by-case basis, Buyer shall have a period of thirty (30) Business Days ("Business Days" meaning each day where business is carried out within the territory) following delivery ("Acceptance Period") within which to either accept the Deliverable or provide Supplier with written notice of Non Conformance.
 - 2.2.2 If a Deliverable (or any part thereof) is Non-Conforming, Buyer may return such Non-Conforming Deliverable to Supplier, at Supplier's risk and expense, and receive a full refund or credit for all amounts paid for the Deliverable. In the alternative, Buyer may grant Supplier the opportunity to repair or replace or re-perform any Non-Conforming Deliverable, in whole or in part, within five (5) Business Days, or such time period as is determined by Buyer to be reasonable based on Customer's expectations and requirements. After such repair, replacement, or re-performance is completed, the Acceptance process set forth in this Clause 2.2 shall begin anew
3. Risk of Loss. The following provision shall apply in lieu of Clause 5 4(Risk of Loss):
"If Supplier installs the Products upon delivery to Buyer or Customer's site, risk of loss (including damage) shall pass to Buyer upon Acceptance (as defined in paragraph III Clause 2.2 of Annex 5.) of the installation Service. If the Supplier does not install or carry out any other Services in relation to the Products following delivery of the same, risk of loss (including damage) shall pass to Buyer upon delivery of the Products to Buyer or Customer's site by the Supplier."
4. Supplier shall be obligated to acknowledge receipt of a PO within one (1) Business Day of issue. If Supplier has not provided notice of rejection of a Purchase Order within one (1) Business Day of issue, then unless such acceptance period is extended by mutual written agreement, the PO shall be deemed to have been accepted

Having regard to the state of the art and cost of their implementation, the Supplier agrees that such measures shall ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks represented by the processing and the nature of Personal Data to be protected and will at a minimum include:

WHERE (A) VERIZON IS A CONTROLLER AND THE SUPPLIER IS A PROCESSOR, OR (B) VERIZON IS A PROCESSOR AND THE SUPPLIER IS A SUBPROCESSOR, OR (C) WHERE DATA PROTECTION LAWS DO NOT DEFINE OR DISTINGUISH BETWEEN THE CONCEPTS OF CONTROLLER AND PROCESSOR

1. The Supplier agrees and warrants:
 - 1.1 that it will process Personal Data only:
 - (a) on behalf of Verizon and in accordance with its documented instructions (unless otherwise required by any EEA Law to which the Supplier is subject);

 - (c) in compliance with this Exhibit;
 - 1.2 that if it is legally required to process Personal Data otherwise than as instructed by Verizon, it shall notify Verizon before such processing occurs, unless the law requiring such processing prohibits the Supplier from notifying Verizon on an important ground of public interest, in which case it shall notify Verizon as soon as that law permits it to do so, in which case Verizon is entitled to suspend the transfer of data and/or terminate the Agreement;
 - 1.3 that it has no reason to believe that any legislation applicable to it prevents it from fulfilling either the instructions received from Verizon or its obligations under this Exhibit and that in the event of a change in that legislation which is likely to have a substantial adverse effect on the warranties and obligations provided by this Exhibit, or if Supplier believes Verizon's instructions infringe any Data Protection Laws or issuances of a regulatory authority, it will promptly notify Verizon as soon as it is aware, in which case Verizon is entitled to suspend the transfer of data, modify its instructions, and/or terminate the Agreement;
 - 1.4 that it will provide such assistance to Verizon as Verizon reasonably requires in complying with its obligations under Data Protection Laws, including Verizon's obligation to respond to requests by Data Subjects in the exercise of their rights. Such assistance shall be provided in a manner that enables Verizon to comply with its obligations fully and in a timely manner;

 - 1.6 that it will promptly notify Verizon about:
 - (a) any legally binding request for disclosure of the Personal Data by any Regulator, law enforcement authority or government ministry or agent unless otherwise prohibited from doing so by law; or
 - (b) any complaint, communication or request received directly by the Supplier or a Sub-processor from a Data Subject and pertaining to their Personal Data, without responding to that request unless it has been otherwise authorised to do so by Verizon;
 - 1.7 that it will submit its data processing facilities, data files and documentation needed for processing the Personal Data (and/or those of its agents, affiliates and Sub-processors) to reviewing, auditing and/or certifying by Verizon (or any independent or impartial inspection, agents or auditors bound by a duty of confidentiality, selected by Verizon and not reasonably objected to by Supplier) to ascertain compliance with the warranties and undertakings in this Exhibit upon reasonable written notice of Verizon and during regular business hours;
 - 1.8 that it shall not collect or use Personal Data contrary to the Agreement, this Exhibit, or applicable Data Protection Law;
 - 1.9 that it shall not subcontract any of its processing operations under the Agreement unless:
 - (a) it has obtained the prior written consent of Verizon to do so (which may be conditional upon the Subprocessor entering an agreement with Verizon containing undertakings to protect the Personal Data); and
 - (b) the Subprocessor is subject to a written agreement which imposes the same obligations on that Subprocessor with respect to its processing activities as are imposed on the Supplier under this Exhibit;

- 1.10 that it shall remain fully liable on an unlimited basis to Verizon for any Subprocessors' processing of Personal Data under the Agreement;
- 1.11 that it will not transfer Personal Data to any location other than the Processing Locations unless the parties agree in writing to change or add a new Processing Location; and
